Sean Montgomery

Sean Montgomery est un artiste Canadien. Il est né à Edmonton en Alberta, il vit et travaille à Ithaca dans l'état de New York. Il est bachelier de l'Université de l' Alberta ainsi qu'une maîtrise de l'Université Concordia à Montréal.

Les nouvelles séries de tableaux de Montgomery approfondissent ses recherches sur les notions de masculinité, et plus spécifiquement sa représentation à travers l'iconographie Canadienne. L'artiste examine également les hiérarchies artistiques et leur influences dans la pratique de la peinture ainsi que de la façon dont elles sont reliées à l'histoire de l'abstraction .
